2010-2011
California Strawberry
Growers' Scholarship Fund

What is the California Strawberry Growers' Scholarship Fund?

The California Strawberry Growers' Scholarship Fund was established in 1995 to provide continuing scholarships to students who received first year scholarships from the California Strawberry Scholarship Program. This nonprofit fund is supported by California strawberry growers, shippers, processors and affiliated industry members. Beginning in 2007, students who are currently enrolled, but didn't receive funding through the California Strawberry Scholarship Program for their first year, are also eligible to apply.

California strawberry growers offer scholarships to qualified applicants in each major strawberry-growing region of California: Watsonville/Salinas, Santa Maria, Oxnard, Orange County/San Diego and Fresno. Scholarship award values start at $200 and are applied toward full-time status at a four-year college/university, junior college or accredited trade school. All scholarships are one-year allocations.

Funds are sent directly to the school and applied towards tuition and books. Recipients may pursue their preferred field of study.

Who is eligible?

To be eligible for the California Strawberry Growers' Fund scholarship, applicants must be children of strawberry farm workers and have at least one parent currently employed (for at least two consecutive years) in the California strawberry harvest. Growers and their families, permanent staff and board members of the California Strawberry Commission or their families are not eligible. All applicants must be sponsored by a legitimate California strawberry grower.

How is the selection made?

A selection committee comprised of members of the strawberry industry reviews applications and awards scholarships based on merit.
